"The visitors confined their inspection to the Maxwell street school finding it inconvenient to make the rounds of all the schools in the city, and believing that they could observe the working of the system in one school as well as in a visit to all. Of the number making the trip three came from Winchester and four from Mt. Sterling. The former were attracted here through hearing of the excellent work of former principal of Maxwell school, Prof. E. F. Darnaby, at present the efficient super intendent of the public schools at Winchester. "The teachers were generally mos interested in the work of the grade she taught in her own home, and so decided to spend the day in the room where such grades were taught in the Maxwell school. All the visitors expressed themselves as having spent an enjoyable and profitable day, both with the teachers and pupils and complimented especially the unusually good order and attention of the latter. At noon an enjoyable luncheon was served to the visitors. The Winchester teachers were the Misses Julia French, Mamie Hughes and Sallie Munday. 'The visitors from Mt. COMPULSORY

State Concurrs in All The House Changes in Measure, But They Do Not Affect The Seventh District Election on March 16.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 23,-The Senate concurred in all the House amendments to the Compulsory Primary bill, but adopted also the following amendment by Senator Hogg:

"And provided further that where political party has before the made a call under its party law for primary election for convention for the nomination or nominations of its candidates to be voted for at November election in 1912, then no nomination of nominations by such parties for such offices shall be made in the primary election held under this act in the year 1912."

The amendment was adopted by 21 to 12.

The emergency clause still re-CHANGES HANDS mains in the bill, but the amendment cannot affect primaries or conventions already regularly called. This means that the Seventh District Congressional primary on March 16 will be held according to the call of the Democratic Committee.

As Told by Motion Pictures, is One of The Prettiest Shown on Canvass at The Present Time.

The simple old tale of Cinderella has been wonderfully elaborated. The Selig version exhibits many beautiful dramatic surprise to those whose memory still clings to the original. The story as arranged by Henry K. Webster is a big modern ness and simplicity of the old nursery tale and is told in three full

The first reel opens with the death of Cinderella's mother. Presently the designing widow enters the grief stricken home, and by her false sympathy wins the regard of Cinderella's father, who later marries her. Before long he leaves on a long journey and Cinderella is forced to act as slave to her new step-mother and two step-sisters. They abuse and mistreat her until she is forced Footsore and weary she takes ref uge in a deserted garden and falls asleep on an old stone bench. In the meantime the King has chosen wife for Prince Charming. But the Prince has ideas of his own about ove and marriage, and refuses the King's mandate. Furious, the King thrusts his son in prison. He escapes and changes his garments for those of a ragged milk vender. On his wanderings he finds Cinderella asleep on the bench. She awakes and he allays her hunger with hi own crusts of bread.

The strange fellowship in adveraty mellows into love, and the disguised Prince gives her a ring in the design of a lover's knot, taking in return a lock of her hair. The girl returns to her kitchen with a new world in her eyes, while the Prince dreams of his tattered Princess.

Second Reel

The King issues a proclamation announcing that if the Prince will return he may marry whomsoever he will. The Prince, overjoyed, returns. Cinderella, now happy and earefree. pays little heed to her daily abuse and ill treatment. She finds great comfort and solace in the ring and its memories, until one day the Prince is pointed out to her, and in him she recognizes her milk vender And so again her childish dreams are shattered. The King gives grand ball in honor of his son. The step-mother and sisters go, leaving Cinderella behind, broken hearted. Her Fairy Godmother comes to her assistance, however, appearing suddenly among the pots and pans. She waves her wand, and tells Cinderella to rub her ring three times. A huge pumpkin appears on the table, again, and a cage full of rats ed 59 to 13. The bill provides for appear. Once more, and Cinderelbeautiful gown, while the pumpkin and rats become a coach and six with a full complement coachmen and footmen. So it is possible for Cinderella to attend the ball, the only requirement being that Cinderella leave the palace before midnight. Cinderella agrees and departs for the ball in state...

Third Reel

At the ball, Cinderella captivates the Prince and his guests with her beauty. To him she looks familiar, but she steadfastly refuses to diwas called here by the critical illness valge her identity. Cinderella so of her brother, Mr. Charlton Lowe. thoroughly enjoys her evening with Mr. and Mrs. Marian Hall, of the Prince that she forgets the approaching midnight hour until it arof Mrs. Hall's uncle, Mr. Charlton rives. of the foot that fits the slipper shall become his wife.

Of course the wicked step-mother and her two daughters try to prevent Cinderella from trying on the shipper; but the courier tells them none shall be denied the chance. And so-she becomes a Princess. The Prince is not present during the fitting of the slipper, for he has retired to that old stone bench in the deserted garden, there to dream awhile.

But the instant the slipper is upon the foot of Cinderella her rags once more change to beautiful raiment, to the astonishment and chagrin of her step-mother and sisters. dress. The coach is waiting; and with a woman's intuition, she goes at once to the garden, where she finds her rapid fire drama with all the sweet- Prince. And they live happily ever the North Middletown route are very bright, because of the active interest manifested by the citizens in that section.

PROSPECTS FOR NORTH MIDDLETOWN ROUTE

Are Exceedingly Bright, According to Mr. L. P. Bell, of the L. & N. Engineering Department.

Squire John J. Redmon, of North Middletown, and Mr. L. P. Bell, assitant engineer of the L. & N. Railroad, were in this city Friday morning taking options to secure the right of way for the proposed new line through North Middletown.

Little difficulty is being encountered in securing rights of way, the options having been taken on all property to that of Mr. Harvey Rogers, of this county, and practically as far Gordonton.

The Paris News in commenting on the situation says: "The work of securing the right-of-way from North will be taken at either service. Middletown to Helges Station, for neet with the L. & E. Railroad in CLAIRVOYANT ROBS Clark county, is progressing rapidly, and it is thought that the work east of North Middletown will have been finished up this week, and a start made toward Paris.

"So far eighteen signatures have been obtained to the options, from land owners east of North Middle town, eleven of these called for free donations of land, while seven land owners wanted reasonable amounts. in many cases less than fifty per cent of the valuation of the land. A number of others not yet seen have communicated their intention to donate

"Many land owners along the route res ide in Mt. Sterling, and the committee, working in conjunction with Mr. L. P. Bell, of the L. & N. Engineering Department, went to that city. Monday, and held a conference with the owners, which was highly satisfactory to Mr. Bell and the com-

"The citizens of Paris and Bourcon county have of last hogen to realize the importance of this North Middletown extension.

"That it is absolutely vital Paris to have this line run by way of North Middeltown instead of by Winchester, is shown by the fact that it is hard to estimate the amount of freight the L. & N. Company expects to haul over this line.

"To give the people of Paris and Bourbon county some idea as to its importance, it is said that the C. H. & D. Railroad alone has promised the L. & N. Company five hundred ears of freight every twenty-four hours. All this traffic which goes to Cincinnati and is distributed from that point will pass through Paris."

MINERS

Worst Disaster of the Kind Ever Known in Oklahoma Up Death Roll to a Higher Figure.

Lehigh, Okla., Feb. 24.-Eight miners are known to be dead and possibly a score others entombed and believed to have been determined. The blaze started shortly after noon Thursday in mine No. 5 of the Western Mine and Coal Company, Gould property.

When the fire broke out 300 feet below ground nearly 200 miners. mostly foreigners, were at work in the shafts and word of the disaster immediately was spread through the

Most of the men escaped through an abandoned shaft, the outlet to which was more than two miles from the entrance to the main shaft.

The fire soon spread all over the main shafts. Thirty ears of coal were scattred through these to feed the flames. It is believed by officials of the company that from sixwith no chance of escape.

Reseue parties reached the scene late Thursday and began the exploration of workings near the month of the mine. The disaster is the most serious in the history of mining in Oklahoma.

Besides the loss of life the damage to the mine will aggregate many thousands of dollars.

I will give you free a sample of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, that have brought health and happiness to thousands-also a book on any chicaic disease you need.

The story of my free offer to you is quickly told. During my many years of practice I have used numerous combinations of curative medicines for liver ills. I have kept records of results in case after case, so that my staff of physicians and surgeons, at the Invalids' Hotel. Buffalo, N. Y., are able to diagnose and treat cases at a distance with uniform good results. I am going to send you free a sample package of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which will relieve biliousness and ill health due to a disordered liver. Write at once for a sample or a book.

But for the permanent relief of blood disorders and impurities, I can recommend my "Golden Medical Discovery"-a blood medicine without alcohol.-R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

Nature's Way Is The Best.

Buried deep in our American forest we find bloodroot, queen's root, man and stone root, golden seal, Oregon grope root and cherrybark. Of these Dr. R. V. Pierce made a pure glyceric extract which has been favorably known for over forty years. He called it "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY."

This "Discovery" purifies the blood and tones up the stomach and the system in Nature's own way. It's just the tissue builder and tonic you require.

Dr. Pierce says: - "Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heartburn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except sumption, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in the obstinate, hang-on-coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous medical discovery. branes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages-no medicine will do thatfor all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consution, it is the best medicine that can be taken." · Methodist Church

On the third Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. G. A. Joplin, of the Kentucky Sunday-school Association, gave an interesting talk to the Sunday-school workers of Winchester at the Methodist church.. He tried to impress his hearers with the importance of the Institute work. We hope to have him hold an institute in Winchester in the near future.

Rev. Leonadis Robinson, pastor of he First Methodist church, delivered the first of a series of discourses, Sunday evening. His subject was "A Man's Religion and His Business." Some of the leading points were these: "There is no division be ween the secular and the sacred." Take your business into your religion. Take your religion into your business. Make religion your business, and not business your religion. Possess your business. Do not al low your business to possess you. (One beautiful illustration of how greed blinds the eyes was this:-"Trinity church, at the head of Wall street, holds the commandments cut in gold, but gain getters never see them, nor the spire that points to heaven. They never look higher than the clock."

His subject for next Sunday will 2 -23-2t be "A Man's Religion And His Church." All are invited. A cordial invitation is extended to stran-

First Christian Church

The congregation of the First Christian church is anticipating with much pleasure, the visit Sunday, February 25, of two of their leading missionaries, A. E. Corey, from China. and Dr. Royal J. Dve. from the Congo, in Africa. Dr. Dye's church in Africa is probably the most remarkable church in the world, in that, out of a membership of about seven hundred it supports seventy of its number as missionaries to the heathen in the surrounding country. In other words, every nine members supports the tenth as a missionary.

Attell Covered With Grease BY JOHNNY KILBANE

New Pugilistic Champion Comes Out of Fight Which Ten Thousand Sports Saw at Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 23.-A new pugilistic champion was made in the Vernon arena Thursday when Johnny Kilbane, of Cleveland, Ohio, decisively outfought, outgamed and outpunished Abe Attell in a tewenty-round contest and at the close was awarded the featherweight title by Referee Charles Eyton.

Nearly 10,000 persons saw the fight. Fully 5,000 others were turned away at the gates. It was the greatest crowd that ever viewed a prize fight in Los Angeles. The receipts amounted to about $25,000. The men fought for a purse of $10, 000 of which Attell was to receive $6,500, win or lose or draw, and Kilbane $3,500. Besides they agreed to divide evenly fifty per cent of the moving picture privilege.

Attell Clearly Outfought Attell was clearly outfouht. Hi boasted speed and wonderful eleverness were not in evidence. Kilband made him look like a novice in near ly every round. Only in one round the seventh, did Attell have a lead and in that it was not by any means as decisive as that of Kilbane in the remaining rounds.

Attell brought the wrath of the big crowd upon himself by foul tacties Time and again he would hold Kilbane's left arm with both hands and once, in the eight, he grabe'd Kilbane's left arm wit hboth hands and tried to bend it back. In the third round he "heeled" the Cleveland boy while in every succeeding round his work called forth hisses from the

In the seventh round, after rushing into a clinch to avoid Kilbane's tattoo of his face and body, Attell head opening a great gash over Winn avenue.

At the beginning of the sixteenth fround Referee Eyton stopped the fight, grabbed a towel and thoroughly wiped off Attell's body. It was seen to be covered with some greasy substance. Attell protested but the referee paid no attention to him.

Kiloane's work has a revelation even to his friends. Entering the ring with the odds two to one against him he never faltered for an instant. He fought fast and showed clever work, both with hands and fee. A straight left jab to Attell's nose or some left eve was his favorite blow. He would send this in and then, like a flash, cross with his right to the other side of Attell's head and jump back out of harm's way.

Attell seemed wild throughout the fight, but this was due as much to Kilbane's foot work as to any other

Time and again the bewildered Attell tried in vain to corner the Cleveland man. The decision of Referee Eyton was received with cheers and Kilbane was carried from the buildng on the shoulders of his friends.

"I want to telephone to Mary," he said, meaning Mrs. Kilbane.

STOCK COMPANY.

The management of the Wincheser Opera House announces that be has secured the famous Wheeler Sister Big Stock Company for an entire week's engagement, commencing Monday, February 26.

It has been the subject of much comment in all the leading papers and possibly in every city of the United States that the good old time drama and melo-drama is a thing of the past. That the motion pictures has been the cause of this decline of the drama. This, however, is not true, but on the other hand the motion pictures is going to bring about be return of this class of attraction for the reason that have keep up nterest in dramas by introducing it in almost every motion picture hat is made. And now the public und motion picture lovers are clamring for their old time favorites in eal life. The melo-drama is 'coming back" into its own.

No better proof of the above 30 cents.
